Paying the Penalty

Mrs. Hamon was acquitted of killing her paramour, the wealthy politician and national committeeman of Oklahoma. The jury finding that the redoubtable "Jake" got what was coming to him and no more, and the girl goes free. Stillman, the wealthy New York banker, whose wife and himself vied with each other, according to newspaper reports, in leading gay and useless lives, is accused of having another family or two scattered around promiscuously, while "Fifi" romantically fell in love with the half-breed guide. Every page of a newspaper exposes the wild doings of the rich roue and adventuress, who think that their wealth excuses them from living up to the moral laws that govern rational mankind. The old adage holds, that "he who dances must pay the piper" and these folks are just paying, that's all. But what concerns the rest of the world is the terrible example they are setting to the rest of the world, and the scandal they are bringing to innocent people. A rich old fool with a plethoric bank-roll can always find some innocent (?) girl to help him spend it, and the finale is a shooting scrape or the suicide route to the beyond. Money will do a whole lot of things, good and bad, for its owners, but it cannot avoid publicity, and eventual punishment.

Miss Nellie Lawrie of 6850 Lafayette ave., who has been spending the winter at Sarasota, Fla., has returned home.

James L. Crooks received a box of genuine shamrocks from Ireland and passed them on to us. The box also contained some seed as well as a poem in the original Gaelic, the language of Ireland.

Aunt Martha Moody's banquet to her many white friends proved a very successful affair. She had a feast—roast turkey, baked ham and all the trimmings. Her coffee was pronounced the best ever. She was born in Alabama in 1839 and is 82 years old.

The spring institute of the Cook County W. C. T. U. will be held in Garfield Blvd. M. E. church, corner Emerald ave. and Garfield blvd., March 31. An excellent program has been prepared, beginning at 10 a. m. and closing in the evening with a play entitled "Lessons in English."

EMPRESS THEATRE

The Empress theatre is drawing extraordinary crowds at this season. In fact they have gained over the attendance of the early summer when they closed for the heated season, and the beautiful new decorations are a source of delight as the effect upon the entrance is at once joyous and cheerful.

The programs arranged by Manager Mitchell are away above any before attempted in any outside failing source of enjoyment, and house, and the top liner attractions instead of the regular routine of hoop rolling, a contortionist and a bar act, every variety of performance will be seen at the Empress with grand musical features predominating. From the best of grand of the best "loop" houses are seen riety of entertainment is a never-opera to the jaziest jazz, from the dear old melodies of our grandmother's days to the latest songs of the period, and from every instrument from the piccolo to the latest saxaphone, the one stringed Chinese fiddle to the richest violincello and interspersed with these comes acts of wonder, athletic, and mystifying, as well as feats of strength and daring. In all the Empress programs are calculated and studied to please everyone at all times, and blase indeed must be the man or woman who cannot enjoy an afternoon or evening at this excellent house. The pictures are good first view features the best program of polite vaudeville of any house in the city, the best of Pantages circuit, and this means the best in America, and with it the finest line of pictures procurable, and always for the Saturday and Sunday matinees a high class serial, as well as comedies that are the best pain-killers on the market.

Special features will be introduced every Saturday and Sunday, as well as two other acts of superb vaudeville and pictures, affording a diversified and varied program of such excellence that no house in "the loop" can equal. Every night in the week there is some feature and you cannot make a and you will be entertained and amused at the Marlowe.

The great musical night is Tuesday when we have the song publishers' revue with the latest hits in songs sung by the publishers' best singers, as well as five big vaudeville acts and pictures. On Fridays comes the professional vaudeville revue in which candidates for engagements produce their own acts under the most favorable conditions for the approbation of the different managers who are looking for good acts to book. You may form some idea of the talent this brings before you. Always seven or more good acts besides the pictures and comedies.

The prices remain the same low amount: 10, 20 and 30 cents for Tuesdays, Wednesday and Thursdays, and for Friday, Saturday, Sundays and holidays, 20, 30 and 40 cents, and war tax. Whatever you do, go to the Marlowe and you will become a regular.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The Marlowe has kept up good shows and good attendance even through Lent, when they missed a great many of their regular patrons, which is surely a deserved compliment to their excellent shows. On Monday and Tuesday, March 28th and 29th, they will have as a special feature, in addition to their other big acts and pictures, "Cheyenne Days," and a wonderful exhibition of cowboy days and work with the lariat and quirt, and will be especially interesting to those who have not seen a real exhibition of Wild West days.

Manager Smith also announces that for Thursday and Friday, April 14th and 15th, the Marlowe will have as an extra special, "The Lincoln Highway."

The Marlowe theatre, true to form, is putting on some excellent programs in vaudeville as well as excellent pictures and the large audiences appreciate Manager Harry Smith's efforts by their splendid patronage. Owing to peculiar circumstances and conditions "on the road" the very best acts of the Pantages circuit are centered in and about Chicago at this time and the Marlowe is getting the choicest ones. Many big acts seen only in the largest houses may be seen now at the Marlowe, and for the coming week Manager Smith promises some unusual talent and surprising big features in pictures as well as vaudeville. Go to the Marlowe this week.

Under the present management the Marlowe Hippodrome is putting on mistake in the night. Come any time

National Theatre

"Friendly Enemies"

We wonder how many people appreciate the fact of having a wonderfully clever stock company right here in our midst at the National theatre? Next week, starting Easter Sunday and running for one week only, the stock company at the National will play America's greatest play, "Friendly Enemies," a play that has caused more comment, made more people laugh, and taught more people a wonderful lesson than any play of modern times. You have heard of so many plays being branded as the best, or the greatest, or one of a hundred different adjectives, but really, as an American you should see "Friendly Enemies." It will make a better citizen out of you; it will make you appreciate your country more, besides giving you a wonderful evening's entertainment. Being Easter week the management of the National are looking for an exceptionally large business on this play, and the advance sale already indicates that they surmise correctly. Seats are on sale now.

At His Very Best

"O'Malley of the Mounted"

William S. Hart and Eva Novak in "O'Malley of the Mounted." A Paramount Picture

The smashing tale of a red-coated horseman who rode for the law on Canada's wild frontier. Rode on a lone hunt into the States—and faced a felon's death—and got his man! Then gripped his prisoner's hand, and stealing away in the night, returned to his chief—alone. Why?

A story that races across the screen like a thousand galloping troopers. Quickens your blood like a blast from the North. Leaves you thrilled at the courage and love that can live in a human breast.

Rehearsals have been in progress for this concert for some months, and it will no doubt be a treat to lovers of good music. The concert is open to the public.

The Madrigal Club to Assist Oakhaven

When Mr. D. A. Clippinger lifts his baton next Friday night, April 1st, at Englewood Masonic Temple, to conduct the Chicago Madrigal Club through the varied delights and romance of a musical "Evening with Shakespeare," his auditors will be treated to the most artistic and entertaining concert that has come to our community this season.

The Madrigal Club is a chorus of fifty mixed voices, largely composed of professional singers. Critics of Boston and New York declare its all-Shakespearean program unparalelled in choral achievement. That it should be given in Englewood for the trifling popular price asked is a source of amazement to all in "the know" of affairs musical.

The club will be assisted by Mr. Guy C. Latchaw, baritone soloist, and by Professor Bertram G. Nelson, reader. Miss Iona Burrows will be at the piano.

The proceeds from this concert will be donated to the building fund for Oakhaven, our own home philanthropy. The affair is being given under the auspices of the department of music and the department of literature of the Englewood Woman's Club, which means the whole club is supporting the enterprise. Mrs. John Charles Young is chairman of the music, Mrs. Albert Fisher of the literature department.

Be loyal to your club. Let us have a big turn-out for Oakhaven and for the homeless, anxious, aged souls now pleading for its erection.

Woodlawn Theatre

Manager Karzas of the Woodlawn theatre has made a specially attractive program for Easter week and one that will draw big among all lovers of the best class of cinema work.

For Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, March 27th, 28th and 29th, comes that greatest of western stars and red-blooded heroes, William S. Hart, in "O'Malley of the Mounted." It is virile, chuck full of "pep" and action and is the very latest of his productions. William S. Hart has perhaps the best starring vehicle of his screen career. It is a story of the Royal Mounted Police of Canada and from start to finish, there isn't an action-less scene in the picture. It is one of those photoplays in which Mr. Hart excels as interpreter of strong, virile men, and his portrayal of Sergeant O'Malley holds one to the end because of its dramatic power. Mr. Hart is author of the story and his leading woman is Eva Novak, a charming actress. Lambert Hillyer directed. Also a two-part comedy and good travelogues.

On Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 30th and 31st, also April 1st and 2nd, they show a grand picturization of Churchill's great novel, "The Inside of the Cup." A photoplay of tremendous force and sweeping action is "The Inside of the Cup," a Paramount picture which comes to the Woodlawn theatre next Wednesday. It is a picturization of Winston Churchill's famous and widely discussed novel of the same name the publication of which in 1913 provoked a world-wide controversy. The story is dramatic, the action thrilling and the love interest centering upon a rector and settlement worker, exceedingly appealing. The shams and hypocrisies of society are exposed with merciless vigor, but this is only incidentally accomplished, the love interest predominating. The picture was personally produced by Albert Capellani. William P. Carleton and Edith Hallor have the leading roles and they head a large and competent supporting cast. Also a good comedy and special features in picturization of popular events.

Out of the chorus and into matrimony—away from Broadway and the bright lights into the dignified gloom of the most dignified mansion on Fifth Avenue. That was the step Flo took. NEW REGENT

With the ending of Lent the New Regent theatre is putting on its very best efforts to please its large and constantly increasing clientele, and offer for Easter week an extraordinary bill of attractions.

For tomorrow (Saturday), matinee and night, comes George Beban, the soulful artist of the people, in one of the greatest of screen offerings, "One Man in a Million." The story is one of human interest with a strong series of comedy reliefs. Mr. Beban has shown his capabilities in this picture, first having written the story and later producing and directing it. In the stellar role Mr. Beban is seen in his now familiar and much-loved character of an humble Italian who teaches a really human lesson through the medium of a big and kind heart. The author has called to his aid many clever dogs and an almost human parrot to bring home the story of the picture. Also a Snub Pollard comedy, International News and, matinee only, Eddie Polo in "King of the Circus."

On Easter Sunday, March 7th, continuous from 1 to 11, one of the greatest plays of the year, "Straight is the Way," with Matt Moore and Gladys Leslie in the leads. There's the story of the regeneration of a pair of hard-boiled crooks in it, too. That is, you think they're hard-boiled at the start, but when you get into the story you'll find that they're pretty human after all, and the way a kindly old woman and a pretty girl win them back from the crooked, rocky road of crime to the straight and narrow but somewhat steep road of moral rectitude will make you feel better just for having seen it. There isn't a sermon in it; there isn't a preachment in it; there isn't a musty line in it—but there are two old-fashioned mottoes that will win a grin when they are shown under very peculiar conditions. Also a fine two-reel Mack Sennett comedy, Pathe News and, matinee only, "The Double Adventure."

On Monday and Tuesday, March 28th and 29th, continuous from 1 to 11, and with no advance in prices, the New Regent management will put on that greatest of comedies by the greatest of comedians, Charley Chaplin, in "The Kid," the two days of the engagement extraordinary of the one and only Charley Chaplin, the greatest picture made by the world's greatest comedian, that he has worked on for a full year. The very seriousness of the part in life that Charlie plays in the production, that of foster father to a two-weeks' old baby, makes it one of the most deliciously humorous pictures which he has ever given a joy-loving public. It is full feature length, running six reels, and is comedy of such merit that it blends pathos with its merriest laugh. The droll wit of the new little star, Jackie Coogan, is a novelty refreshing and enjoyable. Don't miss it. Also a good two-part comedy, Screen News and Topical Pictures.

None of our regulars or anyone in the neighborhood can afford to miss the splendid programs of the New Regent the coming week.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

"The Cabaret Girls"

Something far away from the ordinary run of burlesque and musical comedy is offered by Messrs. Herk, Kelly & Damsel in their gorgeous production of "The Cabaret Girls" frolic, which is scheduled to open at the Englewood theatre on Sunday, March 27th, for a week's showing.

Realization that first class principals are a requisite that cannot be denied, Messrs. Herk, Kelly & Damsel engaged such recognized stars at Dot Barnette, vivacious soubrette; Bert Rose, than whom few more genuinely funny comedians are to be seen; Fred C. Hackett, who is a clever rube comedian; Ethyle McDonald, the beautiful prima donna with the perfect figure; Earl Sheahan, the singing and dancing juvenile; Bertha Startzman, an ingenue whose ingenuity knows no bounds, and Mike J. Kelly and Ben Holmes, straight man, whose work of an author is represented in the two-part production, "Aces Up" is the title of the two-act comedy which is presented in eight scenes and the opening scene is that of the "Good Ship H. K. and D." The cabins on the upper deck furnishes the second scene while the third is the lingerie shop; the fourth scene, the garden at Miss Haverly's home is shown; fifth scene, card room; sixth, the sunflower room (the transformation); seventh, entrance to the race track, with all its features and colors, presenting a sight of Brighton Beach; the final and most stupendous scene is the track on Derby Day. Englewood burlesque enthusiasts are promised divers surprises in the production of "The Cabaret Girls" company and with a chorus of selective beauties to augment the attraction furnished by the all-star cast of principals, Manager Sisson of the Englewood theatre is preparing for an exceptionally large attendance.

Harvard

Easter week is to be a big one at the Harvard theatre and Manager Coston has arranged for a fine program all through. Beginning today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, he will present the versatile star, Alice Brady, in a most unusual play, "Out of the Chorus." Out of the chorus and into the Four Hundred. Away from Broadway and into Fifth Avenue. But the toughest alley in the Bowery couldn't have produced plotters more evil-minded and ignoble than those artistocratic new in-laws of hers. Only when they had spoiled her married life and incidentally aroused their son's suspicions till he sat in a murderer's cell, did they realize that they were just what Flo had called them—"Scum!" and that the chorus girl was the real lady. Also first run Pathe News and a clean humorous comedy in two parts and Saturday matinee, "Fighting Fate."

On Sunday and Monday, March 27th and 28th, continuous from 2 to 11:30, they show the screen's greatest mother, Vera Gordon (the mother in "Humoresque") in a powerful heart interest play that delights the eye and furnishes food for thought. Carefully for seventeen years the mother slaved to build up the honor and fortunes of her little family of three. A whim of vanity on the part of her daughter brought the lives of all tumbling discordantly into disgrace and the shadow of the electric chair. In the new Select picture, "The Greatest Love," the futility of man's ambitions and planning is forcibly demonstrated. From the role of Mrs. Lantini, the mother, played by Vera Gordon, with a humanness hard to put into words, down to the smallest part, the characters were cast with exceptional fitness. Also a new Mack Sennett comedy, Pathe News and, matinee only, "The Diamond Queen."

On Tuesday, matinee and night, the Harvard will present the great Cosmopolitan production, "Straight is the Way," a play that has set all the world talking. The story is: Two crooks go to a small town in search of loot and they come in contact with a widow and her charming niece who are in the grip of a loan shark. The women appeal to a ouija board for information regarding a mythical treasure, and the crooks who overhear the plea, contrive to make the treasure quite real. Then follow developments in quick succession, all contributing to make the story highly entertaining. Matt Moore, George Parsons, Gladys Leslie and Mabel Bert are cast in the leading roles. Also Burton Holmes travelogues, a fine Christie comedy and Topical Events. Truly a fine program, and the rest of the week is as good. Celebrate Easter week at this popular home house.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Linstrum of 5946 Halsted st. have returned from a four months' trip about the country, ending with a tour of the Pacific coast. They enjoyed every minute of their well earned vacation, and while they did not buy the Catalina Islands or anything of that sort, they got an "eye full" of all the beauties of that favored land.

Mrs. Lucille Duff, 9315 Loomis blvd., celebrated her birthday in a very charming way last Sunday. Nine former sorority girls were present and a delightful secret was divulged when the hostess announced the approaching marriage of one of her guests, Miss Madeline Carroll, of Rogers Park. Easter decorations were carried out in a pleasing way. All present enjoyed the pretty celebration immensely.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

Youth or Age?

I do not know, as turning page on page,
When near the [illegible] youth or age,
The dreams of youth are fair, all running full
Of golden promises delectable;
And yet somehow the notion comes to me
That as the years pass on, reality
Holds richer worth, and in the harbor's calm
After the storm there lies a rarer balm
To soothe the troubled soul than in the strife
Attendant on our battlings with life
Whiche'er the sweeter be, I'm nothing loath
To thank my stars that I have tasted both.

It was Casey who remarked, "A lazy mon would rather take a half loaf than work for a whole one."

Willis Hall once told me, "Clothes sometimes make the actress, and lack of them the chorus girl."

Have you got the nice colored eggs the rabbit laid for you for Easter?

If they don't lay off on that crusade against tobacco up in Evanston, I'll send one of my sweet-scented office pipes after them and chase them into the lake.

Funny that every old bald-pated guy that manages to elicit a smile from a pretty girl, imagines he is "just as young as he used to be" and twice as winning.

About the only mistake I can detect of President Harding thus far is that he has not appointed me to some nice fat paying, easy living job, and I am from Ohio at that.

Now come the income tax "dicks" who are after the landlords with a spyglass, hunting up if they made proper returns on their rent rolls. Verily the ways of the wicked are hard.

It might have been all right for the jury to acquit Clara Smith for killing Jake Hamon, but if she goes into the movies, they should reconsider their verdict and hang her, or something.

I was treated (?) to hearing a broad dialected Swede tell an Irish story, and a newly arrived Yiddisher tell a Swede story one day this week. It was pitiful, and there should be a law to punish it.

It sounds funny to hear the ice company say that they make their ice out of pure water and at the same time announce that owing to the failure of the "natural" ice crop they must raise prices.

The greatest "column" man of the day, the well known "B. L. T.," of the Tribune, Bert Leston Taylor, signed his "30" last week and laid down his witty pen forever. He was the most quoted paragrapher of the day, a fine fellow and a good old timer newspaper man. Peace to his ashes.

The Kiwanis club has a rule that the last man who arrives at the Tuesday luncheons must pay the ticket of the first arrival. Last week that scheming Democrat, Will McDonnell, succeeded in inveigling two innocent and guileless newspaper men, John Foster and "Casey," into his new Reo sedan, to take them to the club, and then locked the doors on them so he would beat them to the table. "Mac" is bound to make some one else pay for that car.

Solved at Last

At this time of the year variable weather conditions are met with; the question arises what is the best coal to keep the rooms about 70 degrees fahrenheit and not burn coal unnecessarily.

We are confident we have solved the problem with our "Meiner's Special Harrisburg for Heat Coal," because this coal is absolutely the purest and best prepared soft coal that comes out of the state of Illinois. This coal will do for you what it has done for others; it will keep your fires for 24 hours; cold mornings and evenings you can get heat up in 15 minutes. Can be used in any heating plant, large or small, also in any stove. Remember the name, "Meiner's Special Harrisburg for Heat."

We also carry all other grades of soft and hard coals, also that premium Pocahontas mine run coal which is very lumpy, low in ash, high in heat units.

A Splendid Stock Company

The pretty National theatre is crowded at about every performance, matinee and evening, but those of our Englewood people who are not "regulars" miss a treat each week, as the present company is by far the best stock company seen in Chicago for many moons. The selection of plays is the best and the royalties they pay are the highest, and no company can produce these plays better or mount them better than do the National management.

The company is composed of bright, talented young people and the excellent stage management of Griff Barnette is shown in their work. The leads are played by Howard Hall and Miss Dixie Dow and it is a pleasure to see them, with their earnest work and pleasant personalities; they win one before they are "on" a minute. Earle Ross is villainous enough as the heavy, and a good actor. Orin Burke is an artist of exceptional ability as also are Erne Brown, Arthur Verner, Dudley Miller, C. E. Hoxworth and Toots O'Dare, while as the juvenile Milton Kibbee is refreshing and spontaneous with pleasant mannerisms and real talent. Miss Lawton, either as ingenue or character, is a deserved favorite, and most conscientious in her work, as also is Miss Josephine Worth, and taken as a whole we can most heartily commend the National company, and their manager supreme, the genial Cliff Hastings, who makes every one feel as if they were his personal guests. The whole atmosphere of the National is wholesome, clean and fine in every sense of the word, and this voluntary contribution is but a decent acknowledgement and appreciation of their excellent work. This week they have on "St. Elmo" and next week for the first time "Friendly Enemies" will be presented by this or any other stock company. It is a wonderful play and will be well presented, and we are sure will draw the immense houses it is entitled to.

At one of Mr. Babson's industrial conferences at Wellesley Hills a half day was given to the consideration of the matter. There will be opportunity for questions from the floor. Messages to Seekers of Success

Luck and Lack

Don't trust to luck. Luck is untrustworthy. Systematic, scientific striving for any goal is far more likely to bring you success than any mere faith in your success.

Just as changing a single letter changes "Luck" to "Lack," so will the reverses of a single day change plenty to want. But you can insure yourself against this by building your success on the habit of saving.

Save and Win

Be well dressed. Make friends. Increase your influence in your community. Enjoy the respect of all your associates.

These things do not come to those who trust to luck for them. Systematic saving will win them for you. Systematic saving will accumulate for you a small fortune that can safely and readily be expanded to a large one.
